Save the Date: Compassion in Action Conference

We're pleased to announce that we are hosting our next Compassion in Action Healthcare Conference in Boston, MA, on Sept. 8-10, 2019! Our inaugural conference brought together more than 500 clinicians, system leaders, patients and families to learn about cutting-edge programs, strategies and tools to create and sustain cultures of compassion. Visit our website to see a sampling of last year's speakers and workshops, and stay tuned for more details on our upcoming conference.

Caring with Compassion for Children & Families

We invite you to join us for our next Compassion in Action webinar with Schwartz Center Chief Medical Officer Beth Lown, MD, in conversation with 2015 National Compassionate Caregiver of the Year® Award recipient Rick Boyte, MD, a palliative care physician at Forrest General Hospital in Hattiesburg, MS. Dr. Boyte, a pediatrician, has been described by a patient's mother as supportive "in unimaginable ways," and a colleague called him "a man worth emulating." During this webinar, Dr. Boyte will share stories of his 20-plus years of experience providing care to patients and families, and highlight the value and rewards of compassion in the care of children and their families.

Nursing Leadership Support for Compassion

Nursing leaders and managers can play a significant role in support of compassionate practices for staff and improvement of the work environment and staff well-being. Read "Mission Critical: Nursing Leadership Support for Compassion to Sustain Staff Well-being," written by Beth Lown, MD, Chief Medical Officer for the Schwartz Center, in the current issue of Nursing Administration Quarterly.
