

Present Your Work at Our 2022 Virtual Conference

This year, our Virtual Compassion in Action Healthcare Conference brought together nearly 500 healthcare professionals, leaders and others like you who are committed to compassionate healthcare. We hosted an exchange of diverse thoughts and ideas around the critical importance of compassion in healthcare, particularly during this challenging time.

Our next virtual conference will be held June 14-15, 2022 – we hope you will join us and like-minded colleagues in what is sure to be another enriching and inspiring experience! We invite you to submit your work for presentation at the 2022 Conference.

Submit Your Work

Subscribe to our email list.

Register for Our Compassion in Action Webinar

In this Compassion in Action webinar, Dr. Stephen Trzeciak, co-author of "Compassionomics: The Revolutionary Scientific Evidence That Caring Makes a Difference," will explain why compassion could be a "wonder drug" for the 21st century and the challenges facing today's healthcare leaders. In conversation with Schwartz Center Chief Medical Officer Dr. Beth Lown, Dr. Trzeciak will share evidence that shows the vast benefits of compassion for patients, organizations, and the healthcare workforce.

Register Now

Healthcare Workers Need Your Help

Subscribe to our email list.

In the past two years, we have seen unprecedented demand for the Schwartz Center's resources and programs, such as Stress First Aid and Schwartz Rounds®, which support healthcare workers in dealing with the trauma and stress of their jobs.

Thanks to you, we've been able to provide these urgently needed resources to hundreds of thousands of caregivers. Our work has never been more important, and the impact of your support has never been more meaningful. Please consider making a donation to support these programs today.

Please Donate Now

In the News

The Lorna Breen Act Is One Step Closer to Becoming Law

We're pleased to share that The Lorna Breen Healthcare Provider Protection Act passed the U.S. House. This important act will help reduce and prevent suicide, burnout and mental health conditions among healthcare professionals.

The Schwartz Center fully supports this work, which is why we have joined the Dr. Lorna Breen Heroes' Foundation in the All In campaign to advance a state where the well-being of the healthcare workforce is prioritized and individual healthcare workers feel valued and supported so they can sustain their sense of purpose and meaning in their work.

Read More

Upcoming Events

Compassion in Action Webinar
January 27, 2022
4:00 p.m. ET

Compassion in Action Conference
June 14-15, 2022
Save the date!

Subscribe to our email list.

RegisterLearn More

Top Social Posts from Last Month

A hospital nurse serenades their COVID patients with a song in a heartwarming video

On her days off from the ER, one nurse comes back in to brush her patients' hair

"You never really understand a person until you consider things from his point of view."

Connect With Us

You can help by supporting our programs that improve the mental health and well-being of healthcare professionals.

DonateEmail Us

The Schwartz Center | theschwartzcenter.org | 100 Cambridge St. | Ste. 2100 | Boston | MA | 02114

Share this email:

emma®

Subscribe to our email list.

Manage your preferences | Opt out using TrueRemove™

Got this as a forward? Sign up to receive our future emails.

View this email online.

100 Cambridge Street, Suite 2100
Boston, MA | 02114 US

This email was sent to .

To continue receiving our emails, add us to your address book.

Subscribe to our email list.