Compassionate, Collaborative Care

When Healthcare “Heroes” Need Help: Destigmatizing Mental Illness in the Healthcare Workforce

Please join us for a special panel discussion on January 26, 2021, at 3:00-4:00 p.m. EST, which will be moderated by MSNBC’s Chris Hayes, and will feature Corey and Jennifer Feist of the Dr. Lorna Breen Heroes’ Foundation; Jeremy Segall, Chief Wellness Officer of NYC Health + Hospitals; Dean Michelle Williams of Harvard T.H. Chan School of Public Health; and Schwartz Center Chief Medical Officer Dr. Beth Lown.

The panel will explore the ways in which the pandemic has exacerbated a mental health crisis for our healthcare workforce, and steps we can take to prevent, assess, and address the significant mental and behavioral health consequences of caregiving. As we reflect back on our 25th anniversary year, we recall the story of our founder. In 1994, Ken Schwartz was diagnosed with advanced lung cancer. During his 10-month ordeal, he came to realize that what matters most during an illness is the human connection between patients and their caregivers.

At the end of his life, Ken outlined the organization he wanted to create -- a center that would nurture the compassion in healthcare. 25 years later, we are doing just that.
